BIO:

Dr Emily Letran is a serial entrepreneur, CEO of multiple dental practices, and private coach to many professionals. As an international speaker, she has been on TEDx and shared stages with countless business leaders including Sharon Lechter (Co-Author Rich Dad Poor Dad), Dan Clark (Hall of Fame Speaker), Dr. Howard Farran (Dental Town), and Linda Miles (The Ultimate Mentor of Dentistry). She has been featured on Dental Town, Global Woman, See Beyond magazines, and mentioned on Yahoo!Finance, Medium, USA Today, and FOX. She is a contributing writer for Dental IQ and Dentistry Today. Dr Letran is the author of several books, the Founder of the non-profit Smile Champions, and the Founder of Exceptional Leverage Inc., a coaching and consulting firm. She hosts her signature events, ACTION To WIN seminar, in several countries.

Dr. Letran received her Bachelor of Science in Biology from UC Riverside (magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa) in three years. She is a graduate of UCLA School of Dentistry (Dean's Apollonian Scholarship) and received her Master of Science in Oral Biology from UCLA during the same four years.

As a mother of three, Dr. Letran creatively balances work, family life, after-school life and her personal life as a growing entrepreneur. She continuously takes courses to improve her skills to better serve her clients. She is dedicated in helping business professionals maximize their potential in personal and business life, streamline business and increase profits, winning back time from work so they can enjoy that time with their family, children and pursue their passion. She truly believes we should always be the best version of ourselves.
